

Bread and Roses J. Oppenheim (words) M. Farina (melody) (1-17-2017)
Start note:B Uke chords (GCEA tuning) G:0232 D:2220 A:2100 Em:0432

G D
1. As we go marching, marching in the beauty of the day,
G D A D
A million darkened kitchens, a thousand mill lofts gray,
G C D
Are touched with all the radiance that a sudden sun discloses,
G (Em) C D G
For the people hear us singing: "Bread and roses! Bread and roses!"

G D
2. As we go marching, marching, we battle too for men,
G D A D
For they are women's children, and we walk with them again.
G C D
Our lives shall not be sweated from birth until life closes;
G (Em) C D G
Hearts starve as well as bodies; give us bread but give us roses!

→ 3. As we go marching, marching, unnumbered women dead
G D A D
Go crying through our singing their ancient call for bread.
G C D
Small art and love and beauty their drudging spirits knew.
G (Em) C D G G G G
Yes, it is bread we fight for - but we fight for roses, too!

G D
4. As we go marching, marching, we are standing proud and tall.
G D A D
The rising of the women means the rising of us all.
G C D
No more the drudge and idler, ten that toil where one reposes,
G (Em) C D G
But a sharing of life's glories, bread and roses, bread and roses.

Repeat last line, slowing to the end.

Version above is in key of G with slight changes to the lyrics and the added 4th verse but basically it's this melody:
